

2009 Purdue Grand Prix Telecast Information

NBC Universal Sports Channel

---

Tuesday & Thursday,
April 28th & April 30th at 8pm

In Lafayette on Comcast Cable Channel 510

---

Other Indiana Cities, Channels:

Channel 248

Indianapolis, Columbus, Connersville,
Crawfordsville, Frankfort, Logansport,
Monticello, Muncie, Peru, Rushville, Shelbyville.

Channel 510

Anderson, Attica, Bedford, Bloomington,
Brownstown, Greencastle, Greensburg,
Greenwood, Hartford City, Kokomo, Linton,
Winchester, Martinsville, Noblesville, Richmond,
Spencer, Lynn.

Total – 240,000 Homes
------------------------------

---

NBC Universal Sports is a 24-7 cable channel dedicated to amateur sports and serves as the preeminent multi-platform destination for Olympic and lifestyle sports programming.

NBC Universal Sports Television Network delivers an immersive experience via exclusive live and on-demand coverage of world-class competitions, interaction with top athletes and in-depth access to sports news and information year round.

2009 Purdue Grand Prix Telecast Information

ICN Channels

Wednesday & Thursday,
April 29th & April 30th at 7pm

In Lafayette on Comcast Cable Channel 96

Other Indiana Cities, Channels:

Indianapolis (CH. 190)
80,000 Customers

Anderson (ICN 3 / ICN 69)
50,900 Customers

Bloomington (ICN 21)
99,300 Customers

Columbus (ICN 19)
26,200 Customers

Kokomo (ICN 16)
26,900 Customers

Lafayette (ICN 96)
49,800 Customers

Noblesville (ICN 18)
55,900 Customers

Richmond (ICN 64)
20,800 Customers

Total - 409,000 Homes

2009 Purdue Grand Prix will also be available for free viewing on Comcast's Video On-Demand Platform to over 350,000 homes.